China probably doesn't know yet whether she will have to pay more to Japan for licking Russia than she would have been compelled to pay Russia if she had whipped Japan.

A lawyer has written a magazine article defending "the new woman." He is probably lawyer enough to know that every man's "old woman" can take care of herself and needs no defense.

The Pottsville, Pa., authorities in order to stop "spooning" in the Borough Park, have made a night in jail the penalty for getting caught kissing a girl under the trees. If the trees are so bashful they can't stand to see a girl kissed they have the privilege of leaving.

It is all right for a newspaper to announce that it received a certain number of new subscribers on a given day. But why add to the statement, "And it wasn't a good day for new subscribers, either?" Is this any more impressive than the query of the esteemed citizen who mops his brow and then shocks you with, "Is it hot enough for you?"

The Washington Post remarks: "'Men who stay at home every night are not good for anything,' says Dr. Julia Holmes Smith." Please state for the benefit of married men that the erudite and able Dr. Smith is earnestly requested to begin a series of lectures to married women only, elaborating the true proposition which she lays down so succintly.

Congressman Wm. C. Lovering, of New York, has returned from a Southern trip and on Wednesday told the New York Journal of Commerce that the South this year will produce a 13,000,000 bale crop. Even the bears in New York appear to be thinking the other way just about this time. Nine cent cotton shows that the speculators have gotten their news from another source.

A physician who is a throat specialist, after examining the throats of many women, declares that a woman's vocal organs qualify her for out-talking a man. This discovery makes men laugh, because it holds out the idea that a man has to look down a woman's throat to find out something that Adam knew all about ever since Eve talked him into tasting forbidden fruit.

AN ARREST FOR FORGERY

W. W. Leigh, Young White Man Taken In Custody Last Night, Wanted In Georgia.

Upon his arrival in the city last night on the A. & Y. train from Mr. B. F. Keith's fertilizer works up the river where he had been employed for a short time, W. W. Leigh, a young white man, was arrested by Constable W. B. Savage upon a warrant charging him with forgery, alleged to have been committed while in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., at Alizona, near Macon, Ga. The arrest was at the instance of Mr. D. C. Horgan, a special agent of the Singer Company, who has been in quest of Leigh for some time, having learned of his whereabouts a few days ago. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Horgen was informed that Leigh would reach the city on the night train to spend Sunday in the city with his wife. He went before Justice John J. Furlong and secured a warrant for the young man's arrest and the same was immediately executed by Constable Savage upon the arrival of the train.

It is understood that the grand jury at Macon found a true bill against Leigh, but his arrest was not accomplished at once and he fled the State. A bond of $1,000 was fixed as the amount of security for his appearance and failing to give the same, he was committed to jail last night awaiting requisition papers from Georgia. If the prisoner will consent to return without the requisition, Constable Savage will leave with him for Macon to-day.

THE FEDERAL COURT

One Week Term for Trial of Criminal Causes Convenes Here Tomorrow

BATCH FROM FAYETTEVILLE

Case of "Jimmy" Burns, Savannah Negro, Will Be Interesting—"Retailing" Matters From Upper Counties in the District.

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina will convene here to-morrow morning and continue in session a week unless the business of the term is sooner disposed of. Judge Thos. R. Purnell, of Raleigh, will preside and all other of the court's officers are expected to be in attendance. The term is for the trial of criminal causes only, the circuit court term having been held several weeks ago. There are a large number of cases on the docket, some of them rather important. One is that of "Jimmy" Burns, the Savannah negro, charged with raising money orders and passing them at several points in this State according to a novel scheme which has already been detailed in the newspapers. One of his victims was Mr. R. F. Hamme, of this city, who will be a leading witness for the prosecution.

The number of "retailing" cases from the upper, dry counties of the district is large and some time will be required to dispose of them.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon has the following:

Cumberland will be well represented at the Federal Court which meets in Wilmington on Monday. To-morrow Deputy United State Marshal Colvin will go down with nine prisoners, who are now in the county jail here charged with selling whiskey. They are: Thomas Matthews, Thos. Sikes, Steve Hall, and Marshall Powell, white; Dan Surles, Geo. Newell, Albert McNeill, Pem Nelson and William Riceker, negroes. Newell is nearly 80 years old, and is one of the oldest prisoners ever placed in jail here.

In addition to these six others are to appear before the court, having been bound over from the district court here.

The following attorneys from the Fayetteville bar will attend the court: Messrs. J. W. Bolton, L. L. Cook, J. G. Shaw, Q. K. Nimocks and A. S. Hall. Mr. John McLaurin, of Flea Hill, goes as a juryman. A host of witnesses will go down, among them are Messrs. A. L. McCaskill, A. H. Solcomb, J. Q. Barnes, W. W. Horne, W. J. McDonald, J. F. Musselwhite, J. H. Benton, S. R. Parker, L. D. Bennett, Joseph Shaw, D. K. Taylor, W. H. Sessoms and Wm. Butler

W. L. I. MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Soldiers To Honor Memory of Comrades Passed Away.

According to its beautiful custom of honoring the memory of those of its comrades who have departed this life during the twelve-month preceding, the Wilmington Light Infantry will assemble in Saint James' church at 6 o'clock this evening to participate in its annual memorial service, which will be conducted by the chaplain of the company, the Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of the parish. The infantrymen will assemble in their armory half an hour before the service and attend the service in a body and in uniform.

The memorial this year will be especially impressive on acount of the recentness of the death of three of the five members the company has lost during the past year. The five members were: James D. Smith and John C. James, of the Reserve Corps; W. A. Little, James W. Jackson, Jr., and Edwin Y. Moore, all now of sainted memory. Friends of the company and the general public will be welcome at the service.

Played For High Stakes.

William Bracey, colored, was lodged in jail by Constable Savage and Justice Bornemann yesterday on a charge, in the court of the last named, of false pretence preferred by Mr. C. Herbert Steljes, who keeps a store at Thirteenth and Market streets. Mr. Steljes said the negro appeared at his store about a month ago with an order from Mrs. Fowler, on the sound, asking him to let the bearer have what he wanted from time to time and charge to her account. The bill very shortly ran up to about $200 and when Bracey appeared yesterday for still further advancement, Mrs. Fowler was telephoned. She said she knew not one thing about the order, whereupon Justice Bornemann was 'phoned for. A warrant was at once issued and the arrest followed. Bracey will be given preliminary trial Monday at 4 P. M.

Vagrants' Day in Court.

Mayor Waddell had before him in the police court yesterday the eight denizens of Terry's alley, arrested the night before for vagrancy. Three of the number, Lugenia Bacchus, Marie Bachus and Fannie Underwood, were represented by A. J. Marshall, Esq. The two last named proved that they had legitimate employment and were discharged while the first named and the five others were given sentences of 30 days each on the roads or in the workhouse. One or two of them were given choice of paying $10 fines. Emma Pugh, colored, drunk and disorderly, was also given 30 days on the roads. Henry Pigford, a negro man charged with disorderly conduct, was turned over to the county authorities for an inquiry into his mental condition.

Columbia Excursion.

This train will be in charge of Mr. Frank Gough, Excursion Agent of the Seaboard Air Line railway; good order and a good time, $2.00 for the round trip. Train leaves at 7:10 A. M., Monday, June 19th.

NURSES TRAINING SCHOOL

Graduating Exercises at James Walker Memorial Hospital Tuesday Evening—New Annex Open.

Neatly printed invitations sent out yesterday by the Board of Managers announce the graduating exercises of the Training School for Nurses conducted in connection with the James Walker Memorial Hospital in this city. The exercises this year will be of more than the usual interest because the same occasion will mark the formal opening of the splendid, new annex to the hospital building, made possible by the generous gift of Mr. W. H. Sprunt, about a year ago. The annex is now completed and it will be open for the inspection of visitors from 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon preceding the exercises at night. A portion of the building will be occupied as homes for the nurses at the hospital, while, separate and apart, are accommodations for colored patients. The latter department will be open for the inspection of colored persons from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The graduating exercises of the nurses this year will be held in a ward of the new annex and will commence promptly at 8:30 o'clock. The devotional exercises will be conducted by the Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace M. E. church, after which the new building will be formally declared open by Mr. Wm. H. Sprunt. The address to the graduating class will be by J. Akerman, A. B., M. D., superintendent of the hospital, and the presentation of diplomas will be by Mr. M. S. Willard, a leading member of the Board of Managers. The presentation of school pins to the graduates will be by Pride Jones Thomas, M. D. The exercises will be interspersed by music from a special quarette under the direction of Mr. Chas. McMillen. A course of refreshments will follow the formal exercises and visitors will be shown over the splendid hospital as far as conditions will permit, with due regard for the patients. The graduates of the school this year are six in number, as follows:

Miss Margaret Jane Graham, of Pike, N. C.
Miss Bessie Mae McCord, of Charlotte, N. C.
Miss Iola Lee Compton, of Wilmington, N. C.
Miss Ora Lee Shepherd, of Whitsett, N. C.
Miss Grace May Hengeveld, of Sanford, Fla.
Miss Roberta Cromartie of Garland, N. C.

SUNDAY AT THE BEACH.

Dances Last Night Largely Attended —At Beautiful Lumina.

If the weather conditions are at all favorable to-day an immense throng of people will spend an hour or two, at least, on the beach. The hotels are now filled with guests, the clubs and cottages are all open for the first Sunday of the season and everybody will naturally want to go down and take a look at the "greater Wrightsville."

The week-end dances at both hotels last night were largely attended and doubleheaders had to be operated as a late schedule on the suburban line to handle the crowds.

Lumina, the new pavilion of the Consolidated Company, is rapidly gaining in popular favor and many persons make that headquarters while on the beach. This afternoon at 4 o'clock and this evening at 8 two splendid concerts will be given by the double Lumina orchestra and everybody is not only invited but urged to be present. The restaurant and refreshment booth will both be open today. Meals will be served at the restaurant for the nominal sum of 25 cents. The shower baths have been completed and suits are to be had at little cost.

BEACH EXPRESS SERVICE.

Ahrens, The Druggist, Will Inaugurate Up-to-date Delivery System.

Always alive to the needs and conveniences of his customers, Adolph G. Ahrens, the progressive Princess street druggist, has just closed an arrangement with the Consolidated Company by which he will at once inaugurate a first-class express delivery service to all parts of Wrightsville Beach. Incidentally, while serving his patrons, Mr. Ahrens will also handle packages for the public at large, the Consolidated Company having transferred to him all the small package transportation on its line. While purchases at his store will be delivered free of charge to any part of the beach, a nominal charge of 15 cents each will be collected on all other packages, which may be left at his store at any time. Receipts will be given and taken from every consignor and consignee, thereby guaranteeing safety and promptness of delivery. There will also be a delivery on the sound. Express will be sent down at 8 and 11 A. M. and 2 and 8 P. M. The arrangement is one which the public will appreciate and will systematize a service which has heretofore been rather unsatisfactory.

Complimentary Boating Party.

Mr. Frank Keith, Jr., gave a delightful boating party last evening on his speeder, the Catti, complimentary to his young friends, Misses Mary and Edna Robinson, of Ivanhoe, and Misses Carrie May VonGlahn, Mary Moore, Belle Heyer, Lila Keith, and Mr. Leighton Moore, of this city. They took a spin of fourteen miles on the Cape Fear and it was greatly enjoyed by the entire party.

A DAY OF INTEREST

The Institute for Sunday School Workers Attracts Many Visitors to the Beach

THE SESSIONS YESTERDAY

Dr. and Mrs. Hamill Interestingly Discussed Many Phases of Work —Model School To Be Conducted This Morning.

Interest and attendance upon the Summer School for Sunday School workers at Wrightsville Beach are increasing with each day's sessions. Yesterday there were a large number of arrivals and last night it was stated that the number of guests at the Seashore Hotel approximated four hundred. The Sunday School visitors are manifesting a lively interest in the proceedings of the institute and Dr. and Mrs. Hamill are gaining a lasting hold upon the hearts and affection of their hearers. Dr. Pell, of Richmond, is also taking a porminent part in the school and he, too, is very popular as a speaker and as a man.

The "Lesson of July 9th" was taught with much interest and with rare ability by Mrs. Hamill. This was followed by an interesting talk by Dr. Hamill on the organization and grading of a Sunday School. The matter was aptly illustrated and made very interesting. The missionary department in the Sunday School should be cultivated. The statistical department of Sunday School work was another point emphasized as leading to system which should characterize all things.

Mrs. Hamill next gave some lessons in the best methods for the primary dep. tment, a number of suggestions having been given those in attendance for the conduct of their schools at home.

"Teacher Managing" was the subject of Dr. Hamill's next discourse and it was perhaps the most important of the day. He showed how the teacher should manage and conduct his or her class, laying particular stress upon the importance of punctuality and interesting the parents in the pupil's welfare.

Dr. Pell was heard last during the morning session. He drew some valuable lessons from the subject "Captivity of the Jews." It was in the nature of a Bible talk and was enjoyed greatly by all in attendance.

At 10 o'clock this morning Dr. Hamill will conduct a "Model Sunday School" for the benefit of those in attendance upon the institute. An hour later, Dr. Hamill will conduct a service which was originally given to Bishop Smith, who could not be in attendance. There will be a mass meeting in the afternoon and at night Dr. Hamill will come up to the city to preach at Grace Church.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, June 18.

THE RESOURCEFUL JAPANESE.

As a matter of course the Russians believed two years ago that any attempt on the part of Japan to invade Manchuria and expel the Russians would be a foolhardy enterprise. The Russians had strongly fortified Port Arthur and their preparations for the military occupation of Manchuria had been on a scale which they thought made it impossible for the Japanese to get a footing on the Chinese territory which was fast being Russianized.

In the first place Russia could not believe that Japan had the military power and resources to drive her out of China. Secondly Russia did not believe the Japanese could financially sustain a war against her. The fact is that not only Russia but other powers thought Japan would soon exhaust her financial resources and the jig would be up. Financiers in Europe and America friendly to the Japs felt grave apprehensions about Japan's ability to finance a great war. Within a year and a half, however, Japan has proven to the world that she not only knows how to organize and conduct a great military establishment and display unsurpassed strategy on land and sea, but at the same time has not lacked for the sinews of war, has been able to go into the markets of the world and borrow all she needs, and that to-day her bonds are advancing in the markets, as the Star's commercial dispatches have recently shown.

The New York Journal of Commerce referred a few days ago to Japan's resources in a manner that is interesting. Says that able journal:

"An interesting comparison might be drawn, not greatly to the discredit of Japan, between her economic power to-day and that of the United States at the beginning of the Civil War. Some idea of the relative financial and economic strength of the two countries at these different dates may be gathered from the following figures:

	United States, about 1860.	Japan, 1904.
Population	20,000,000	46,000,000
Debt at war	$2,680,647,869	$750,000,000
Imports	353,616,119	160,000,000
Exports	333,576,057	145,000,000
Bank capital	*421,880,095	263,000,000
Bank deposits	*406,507,066	256,000,000
Public revenue	56,064,608	115,000,000

*Not including savings banks

"These facts show that Japan is not yet nearly as heavily burdened with debt in the aggregate as was the United States at the close of the Civil War. The population which supported the war on the side of the North was about 20,000,000, because about 11,000,000 of the population were enlisted on the side of the South. The United States in 1865 not only had a debt nearly four times that of Japan at the present time, but had only half the population to sustain it. The net burden of the individual Japanese to-day, therefore, on account of the public debt is only about one-eighth the burden which fell upon the citizen of the North at the close of the war. Ability to carry this burden must be gauged, so far as public statistics afford a guide, by the volume of foreign trade and banking operations. These show that while the foreign trade of Japan is at present only about half what that of the United States was in 1860, her banking capital and bank deposits do not fall far behind.

"The foresight and prudence of Japanese financiers has presented a shining contrast to the policy of the United States during the Civil War. When there seemed for a moment, in the Summer of 1904, danger that Japan would lose her gold and be compelled to suspend gold payments, the first of the important foreign loans was floated, the gold reserve was restored, and future drafts were prevented by creating a fund in London and New York upon which to draw for war expenditures. In the United States, on the other hand, specie payments were suspended almost upon the morrow of serious military operations. The result of the issue of irredeemable government paper was its descent to 40 cents on the dollar and the flotation of loans which were paid for in the same paper at appalling cost to the treasury. Contrasted with the credit of the United States at that time, the credit of Japan to-day is a striking tribute to the progress of sound economic ideas within the last half century. Not only in regard to maintainng gold payments, but in prompt resort to taxation, Japanese statesmen have shown themselves more enlightened than those of America forty-five years ago."

The more we learn about the Japanese the more wonderful these people appear. When we come to think about it, however, we have never ceased to wonder how the Southern States pulled out of the Union, set up a government, established a treasury and organized a military and naval establishment that kept the 20,000,000 (more probably) of population of the Union busy for four years in coercing them back into the Union. It must be remembered also that a large portion of the 11,000,000 population of the South was composed of negroes.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—With Marion Butler at the head of that paper the people will always be expecting something if it never happens.—Durham Herald.

—Secretary Hay refused to discuss the war situation while in Europe, asserting that he was under orders from his physicians to avoid such topics. Dr. Roosevelt's orders?—Washington Post.

—Mr. Rollins and his fellow newspaper men are sitting up late of night in a way that shows they are beginning to appreciate the seriousness of the proposition they have tackled.—Greensboro Telegram.

—A tablet has been erected to the memory of the thousand victims of the Slocum horror, but no one has yet been punished for the negligence that made the disaster possible, and Dr. Batten, formerly of this city, said at the unveiling of the tablet that no increase in safety of travel had resulted from that awful lesson.—Philadelphia Record.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 16: The Raleigh and Pamlico Sound railroad goes marching on, and the construction train now goes over Neuse river. The steel bridge over that stream has been completed and on yesterday the train went over it. This is seven miles from Raleigh and the road will be rapidly pushed on to Knightdale.

—A Raleigh dispatch says that "in September the Seaboard Air Line will receive five engines which will be novelties, the valve arrangements being entirely governed from the crank pins, doing away with eccentrics, these being the first engines in the South of this pattern." This means that "slipped her eccentric," is a phrase that will go out of style on the Seaboard.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Whatever may be said about Mr. Thomas Dixon he never talks on a subject without letting his hearers know in no uncertain terms what he is talking about. "The Clansman" is criticized severely in some quarters but even its critics admit that it is a strong story. It is the same way with his other utterances. He has a way of talking with force that cannot but be impressive.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

—The Washington Star says we cannot afford to court Chinese trade at the price of unrestricted immigration. Certainly not. Nobody wants any such condition, but the harshness with which the exclusion law is enforced is rightly resented. There is absolutely no reason for such treatment of respectable Chinamen, or any justice in it. This course is but the result of pandering to a demagogic element, and since decent treatment can be accorded the Chinese without opening the gates of immigration, the question is whether this country is to act for the benefit of business interests or of self-seeking politicians. That's all there is to it.—Columbia Record.

TWINKLINGS.

—Instructor (at night school)—What is trigonometry? New Boy—It's a man that's been married three times.—Chicago Tribune.

—Van X.—Did you vote a straight ticket on election day? De Q.—No, my wife made me split it and give her half.—Detroit Free Press.

—"What sort of a man is Klosefist?" "Well, he's rather tight, except when he happens to get tight, and then he loosens up a bit."—Pittsburg Post.

—"And you mean to say that the Paley girl is engaged at last?" "So I hear." "And Who's the happy man?" "Her father, they tell me."—Chicago Journal.

—Mrs. Jawback—James, you're a perfect fool! Mr. Jawback—I knew something like that would happen when marriage made you and me one.—Cleveland Leader.

—"What makes Mrs. Joyner look so anxious?" "She has gotten into a dreadful quarrel." "About what?" "The election of officers in her Don't Worry Club."—Washington Star.

—Her Husband—Now, there's Mrs. Meeker. I know that she makes all her own clothes, yet you never hear her say a word about it. Mrs. Marter—Humph! It isn't necessary.—Judge.

—Mamma—Have some more sugar, Willie? Willie—Why, you always tell me that more than one spoonful is bad for my health! Mamma—That's at home. You're at a hotel now—take all you want.—Cleveland Leader.

—"There never was a cat like my wife," began Klubb. "Oh, say," protested Woodley, "that's rather hard—" "Oh, I mean no disrespect. I meant to say it doesn't matter how dark it is when I get home, she can always see what my condition is."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"Ge whiz!" said George for the twentieth time, "it make me mad every time I think of the $10 I lost to-day. I actually feel as if I'd like to have somebody kick me." "By the way, George," said the dear girl, dreamily, "don't you think you'd better speak to father this evening?"—Philadelphia Press.

"Mary," said Mr. Miggiesworth, "We've simply got to cut down. We're living away beyond our means. Why, my income isn't half as much as our expenditures," "Dear me," replied his wife, "That's funny, isn't it? But as long as we can spent twice as much as you get, and not have to borrow, what's the use of changing?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy, or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Wilmington testimony:

"B. R. King, the well-known policeman, residing at 706 Wooster street, says: "I had terrible pains in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug store. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c. at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. **

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Huge Task.

It was a hugh task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach, Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist; price 50c. **

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00 a bottle. HIGH GRADE CIGARS are found oftener in advertisements than in show cases—you'll find the La Morna high grade in both particulars. It's easy to say this; but it's easier to prove by simply smoking one of the size, shape and color you prefer. Puffing one will pull for a box order, and buying that way will save you money. 5 cents gets you one; $2.00 a box of 50. So many critical smokers endorse the La Morna that you should join the procession.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—At Spring Hill, Nash county, on Thursday, a colored man named Eaton Williams was killed by lightning. A mule was also killed.

—Crop conditions are good now in Halifax county. Persons who had to plow up and re-plant cotton by reason of the hail two weeks ago, are now chopping and plowing the new crop.

—The movement of potatoes from Washington, N. C., has been very free until Friday, shipments dropping off nearly seventy-five per cent. from the day before. The continued low prices are disheartening the farmers, many of whom have not yet dug.

—Greensboro Record: The arrangements for the encampment of the North Carolina National Guard are said to be on a more complete plan than any heretofore held. This government is very serious about its war business. No foolishness nowadays about the preparations for carnage.

—Prof. W. L. Poteat, of Wake Forest left Saturday for New York to sail for Europe There will also go Messrs. J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, and Mr. I. M. Meekins, of Elizabeth City. The party will go on the Cunard liner, the Lucania, and will land at Queenstown, taking in parts of Ireland, Scotland, London, where they will be at the Baptist Congress, Paris, Switzerland, Italy. They will return by way of Palermo and will be back in the United States on the 27th of August.

—Winston-Salem Sentinel: We hope that the proposition to move the main internal revenue office to Winston-Salem will be pushed, no matter who the collector may be. We are sure that there is no good and sufficient reason why it should not be located in Winston-Salem, although this is not meant as an intimation that there is anything wrong with Asheville. Winston-Salem is the logical centre of revenue business in North Carolina and there is no reason why the business of the main office should not be done here.

Raleigh Times: North Carolinians, who want salt water on their bodies, salt air in their deep drawn breaths and sea food for their eager palates, and had the money to pay for it, used consider it necessary to go to Newport, Cape May, Atlantic City, Long Branch, or some other Northern resort. They know better now. There is nothing better in seaside attractions on the whole Atlantic Coast than can be enjoyed at Morehead City, Elizabeth City, Wrightsville Sound and Carolina Beach, and at less than the expense of the Northern watering places.

—An attachment of the State Hospital at Morganton is a training school for nurses, from which a number of the most capable trained nurses of the State have been graduated. It was established eight years ago and the course of instruction is given by the medical staff of the hospital. Heretofore the graduation has been without formality other than the issuance of the diplomas. Dr. Murphy conceived the idea of having the event attended this year with some ceremony, and on Thursday night 13 trained nurses graduated with public exercises. Gov. Glenn delivered the address.

—Charlotte Observer: The Southern Railway has taken another forward step in the establishment of the block system along its main line for the prevention of collisions, both head-on and rear-end. Every six miles is a tower with signals controlled by an operator and no train can enter a block until it is vacant. It is to be hoped that this system will enable the Southern to handle its vast business with more safety and less delay than heretofore, although for a single-track line it does remarkably well, and furnishes a service that cannot be surpassed anywhere.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 16: Monroe is to have a new passenger depot and a new freight depot. The citizens of that place petitioned to the Corporation Commission for a new passenger station and this petition was placed before President Barr, of the Seaboard Air Line. He has given assurance to the commission that the Seaboard will build a new passenger and freight station at Monroe, and that to do this the company will spend about $60,000. In this connection it is understood that a new depot will be built at Rockingham, and that Lumberton and Laurinburg are asking for better depots.

Mr. W. S. Hyams, of Asheville, has been over in Mitchell county, and a dispatch from Asheville on Friday says: Mr. Hyams was asked this morning relative to the mica industry of Mitchell county and said that great activity marked the mining of that mineral and that the product was being disposed of to buyers for large firms who are on the ground. Mr. Hyams said that a new mica mine was discovered in Mitchell county a short time ago that bids fair to excel in output other mines in that section. The new mica mine was discovered on the land of Mrs. Isaac H. Bailey, who formerly lived in Asheville. It is said that the mine is now producing $500 worth of mica per day.

—Charlotte Observer, June 16: The Southern & Western Railroad, now in operation from Johnson City, Tenn., to Spruce Pine, this State, is going to be extended to Marion or near there. Four forces of hands will begin the grading Monday morning, and, when completed, the road will have about 90 miles of track from Johnson City to Marion, and will pass through about 20 tunnels. The Southern Railway is making an independent survey through the mountains to Tennessee and may build its own line. It is said that the present project is backed by the Seaboard Air Line. All of this across-the-mountain railroad building talk will result ultimately in one or two roads which will connect this section of the country with the coal fields of West Virginia. Every transportation company seems to be bent on connecting the coal country with Charleston. Uncle Sam is going to make that port a coaling station and the railroads want to haul the coal from the fields where it is found. The Coast Line, the Southern, the Seaboard, and the Norfolk & Western want the job.

Have the Home Beer Pure

Whatever you drink outside, let your home beer be Schlitz. That is pure beer. No bacilli in it --- nothing to make you bilious.

Beer is a saccharine product, and germs multiply rapidly in it. The slightest taint of impurity quickly ruins its healthfulness.

We go to the utmost extremes to prevent that. Cleanliness is a science where Schlitz beer is brewed.

We even cool the beer in plate glass rooms, in nothing but filtered air.

Then we filter the beer. Then we sterilize every bottle.

And Schlitz beer is aged. The beer that makes you bilious is green beer.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, June 18.

OUR MIMIC WAR IS AT END.

Closed With Magnificent Spectacular Naval Attack.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 17.—The last half hour of the war game between the army and navy, ending at noon to-day, eclipsed all engagements of the week in every feature of the spectacular, possible in sham battles. The fleet under Admiral Dickins, headed by his flagship Texas, sailing in single column close in shore, passed every gun off Fort Monroe. Every ship of the fleet was in action at the same time and every gun of the fifteen ships was being served to the limit of rapidity. On the one side was Fort Monroe as a target and on the other Fort Wool. With equal energy and rapidity the forts replied and while the squadron was one that would be impossible in war it depicted a scene which left nothing to the imagination in the realization of the magnificence of battle. Every effect was there except the effect of the shells. Strategy and play for position and favorable conditions were abandoned that the inspiration of battle might be attained by the man behind the guns. That the closing minutes of the game produced this "death struggle" effect there can be no doubt.

In the line of battle three of the monitors followed the Texas. They were the Florida, the Arkansas and the Nevada, all painted war color. Then came the cruisers Newark and Atlanta painted white. The old Hartford was next in line. The monitor Puritan with the naval militia of the District of Columbia preceded the four destroyers, the Whipple, the Worden, the McDonough and the Stewart, while the Hornet, the Siren and the Slivia brought up the rear. The battleflag of the Texas went down and she ceased firing as she had gotten well past the fort and this example was followed by the units of the squadron as they successively reached the same point. In this way the conflict reached its end gradually and as the last gunboat went out of action the fort sent up a huge smoke bomb the army and navy were at an end, indicating that the joint exercises or The ships proceeded up Hampton Roads after cablegrams had been exchanged between Admiral Dickins and General Wade.

The last day of the war game opened with an attack on oFrt Monroe at dawn by the destroyers and the gunboats of Admiral Dickins' fleet. Just between dark and daylight there is a brief period when conditions are most favorable for offensive naval operations, it being too light for the searchlights to be effectively operated and too dark to see without them.

These canditions were taken advantage of by Admiral Dickins this morning and three of his destroyers and two gunboats crept close to the walls of the fort before they were discovered. An incoming steamship also gave protection to the mosquito flotilla which banked itself in the lee of the big ship and floated close in before being seene. The fusilade was brief, but lively and at its conclusion the offending craft departed toward the capes.

JAILED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Two Men Who Tried to Influence Gattis vs. Kilgo Jurors.

Special Star Telegram.

Raleigh, N. C., Jun 17.—Ex-Sheriff J. Rowan Rogers and J. P. Sorrell, well known farmers of Wake county, to-night were sent to jail for thirty days by Judge Fred Moore for contempt of court in that they approached two men summoned to serve as jurors in the Gattis vs. Kilgo and Duke trial. Rogers and Sorrell asked these men if they got on the jury to look out for the interest of Kilgo and Duke. The jurymen were S. P. Marcom and R. M. King. The evidence was that Rogers told Marcom he was wanted, in the defendants' interest, on the jury, because he could argue and press the interests of Kilgo on other jurors. That King would be all right on the jury, but he was illiterate and they wanted Marcom for his influence over other jurors. That Sorrell told King if he would guard the interests of Kilgo and Duke on the jury and got hard up afterwards just to let the defendants know and they would provide for his needs. Dr. Kilgo and B. N. Duke came from Durham this evening and testified they knew nothing of the affair, and had never seen Rogers or Sorrell before. All the lawyers for the defense in the noted Gattis-Kilgo case were examined. They testified that there had been no one delegated to visit or talk with possible jurors. Rogers and Sorrell admitted the acts charged, but pleaded not guilty as to intent, and stating that they were actuated by no one's influence. The sentence of the Judge was first thirty days' imprisonment and $50 fine each, but the two men pleaded that they had no money to pay the fines and if one was paid it would be charged that it came from Duke, so they preferred to have the whole punishment to be fixed as imprisonment. On this plea the Judge remitted the fines. B. N. Duke and Dr. Kilgo returned to Durham to-night on a special train.

(By Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 17.—The sensation of the day in the State is the finding of two well known white men of this county guilty of attempting to influence the jurors for Kilgo in the well-know case of Rev. T. J. Gattis, a Methodist minister, against President J. C. Kilgo, of Trinity College, and B. N. Duke, of the American Tobacco Company, which was non-suited here yesterday, Kilgo and Duke being charged with malicious libel.

The action was taken by Judge Fred Moore presiding in the Superior Court. He issued bench warrants for J. Rowan Rogers, former Republican Sheriff, and now court crier in the Federal court here, and J. P. Sorrell, a prominent farmer. The testimony of two veniremen, one accepted as a juror, was that Rogers and Sorrell had been to them and urged them to help out Dr. Kilgo in his suit and they would be taken care of if trouble came.

Kilgo, Duke and their known attorneys swore that they knew nothing of the matter. Judge Moore to-night found both Rogers and Sorrell guilty and sent them to jail fr thirty days, with a fine of fifty dollars each.

EMPEROR WILLIAMS' CUP.

Yacht Races Participated In by Two American Vessels.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Dover, Eng., June 17.—Thirteen yachts started from here to-day in the annual race from Dover to Heligoland for Emperor William's cup, in a heavy rain storm and with a light wind blowing.

Shortly afterwards, at about noon, the American yachts Atlantic and Apache and the British yacht Valhalla got away in a fog over the same course for a special cup offerred by Emperor William for the auxiliary yachts which participated in the recent trans-Atlantic race. The Apache later returned to Dover. It is expected that the race will occupy nearly fifty hours.

WILY JAPANESE DISTRUST RUSSIA

St. Petersburg Quibbling Over Selection of Washington for Peace Negotiations

WANTS PARLEY AT HAGUE

Truce Said to Be Under Way Between Armies, But Russians Talk Foolishly About Being Able to Fight On.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—7:09 P. M.—The question of the place of the meeting of the Russian and Japanese representatives has been re-opened and there is a possibility that The Hague instead of Washington may be selected. After the announcement that Washington had been selected, Russia expressed a desire to have the selection reconsiderd and exchanges to that end ar now proceeding between Foreign Minister Lamsdorff and Ambassador Meyer and Washington. Russia's preference for The Hague is based on the obvious advantages that it is entirely neutralized, the capital of a small State and the site of the arbitration court, and also by considerations of time, the representatives to whom Russia will probably entrust the negotiations being now in Europe, while it is pointed out that either the United States or Holland is equally accessible to plenipotentiaries coming from Japan. The influence of Russia's ally France, is also for The Hague, which the foreign office announces is the only place under consideration aside from Washington.

Japan Distrusts Russia.

Washington, June 17.—Subsequent to the designation of Washington as the seat of the conference between the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan, some exchanges were had between the United States and Russia looking on the part of Russia to a re-opening of the question of the place of conference. The precise nature of the exchanges is not known, but it is learned here officially that no change in the location of the conference is at all probable. Both the Russian and Japanese governments consented that the conference should be held in Washington after Japan and presented to President Roosevelt its objections to The Hague or any other European capital. The official announcement of the selection of Washington is regarded here as final, so far as the matter of location is concerned. No change could be made without the consent of Japan and her refusal to go to Europe is said to be final.

The dispatches from St. Petersburg regarding the re-opening of negotiations created great interest in diplomatic circles, and it is said, in well informed quarters, that if confirmed, it may have a bad effect on the negotiations and will "serve to increase the distrust which already exists in Japan as to the sincerity of Russia's intentions regarding the conference."

Russia Satisfied With Washington.

Washington, June 17.—The authoritative statement was made at the Russian embassy late to-night that Washington was acceptable to Russia, and would remain so.

Armistice Under Way.

Headquarters of the Russian army, Godzladani, Manchuria, June 17.—It is learned from an authoritative source that negotiations toward an armistice are under way.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—The Novoe Vremya's dispatches from the front are irrecomcilable in tone. The paper's correspondent with the Russian army in Manchuria telegraphs that the feeling there is against any, but a most honorable peace, as the army is better in personnel, armament and equipment than ever before.

The foreign office says that the talk of arranging an armistice has not passed the preliminary stage.

VIRGINIA PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Deputy Sheriff Assaulted and Four Get Away.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Roanoke, Va., June 17.—A special to The Roanoke Times from Gate City, Scott county, Va., says four prisoners, H. H. Gibson, James Barrett and Orban Head, white, and James Shomaker, colored, broke jail there last night and are still at large. When Deputy Sheriff Broadwater opened the prison door, the prisoners, who had gotten out of their cells, made at the office and struck him a violent blow on the head. Broadwater regained his feet and grappled with Perry Maness, a desperate prisoner, and forced him back into a cell. A reward has been offered for each of the four prisoners.

GEN. MAXIMO GOMEZ HAS PASSED AWAY

Commander In Chief of Cuban Patriots Died at Havana Yesterday—Historic Career.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Havana, June 17.—General Maximo Comez died at 6 o'clock this evening.

"El Caudillo" (Chieftain), as the great leader of revolutions will be called by his countrymen, expired at sunset, in the presence of his family and his old time friend, Estrada Palma president of the republic.

The end same quietly in the beautiful temporary home at the seaside in the suburb of Vedado, to which General Gomez was taken on his return from Santiago. President Palma accompanied by General Andrade arrived about a quarter of an hour previous to the death of General Gomez.

The distinguished patient's heart had weakened steadily since 11 o'clock in the morning and failed to respond to stimulants. Several times during his long illness, General Gomez had shown recuperatiove powers that were astonishing. His real illness extended over forty-six days, although his health had been failing for some months prior to that time.

The admiration of the mass of Cubans for General Gomez amounted almost to idolatry. His death admittedly is a severe blow to any political interest to which he was allied. He was one of the most radical leaders of the National party. He had allied himself with the liberal fusion movement, but a split same during his sickness, and it was generally thought he would have joined Governor Nunez and other assenters in upholding the old nationalist organization.

General Gomez, who commanded the Cuban forces during the insurrection which broke out in 1895, and ended with the complete independence of the island, when on May 20th, 1902, the control of Cuba was formally transferred to the new Cuban government, was born at Bani, Santo Domingo, in 1836, and came of a Spanish family. He began life as a cavalry officer in the Spanish army in Santo Domingo and served during the last occupation of Santo Domingo by Spain. In the war with Hayti Gomez distinguished himself at the battle of Tome, when with twenty men he routed a much superior force of Haytians. When the Spaniards were driven from the island, Gomez went with the Spanish troops to Cuba, and for a time was in garrison at Santiago. Later, being disgusted at the manner in which the Spanish General Villar treated some starving Cuban refugees from whom Gomez had collected funds, the young lieutenant severed his connection with the Spanish army. He became so enraged at General Villar's conduct that he struck the General, called him a coward and from that time became a bitter enemy of Spain. He joined the patriots in the insurrection of 1868 and fought ten years, being Cuban commander-in-chief from 1873 to 1878, succeeding General Agramonte on the latter's death. As a guerilla commander he was unexcelled.

When in 1878 Marshal Martinez de Campos succeeded in persuading the Cuban leaders to make terms of peace Gomez withdrew to Jamaica, and then went back to Santo Domingo, where he lived quietly on a farm until the Cuban revolution of 1895 broke out, and Joseph E. Marti had been proclaimed president. His exploits during the war of independence are well known. From Holguin, in the Northern part of the Providence of Santiago de Cuba, where Gomez and Marti landed with fifty well armed men from a yacht, Gomez fought his way inch by inch up to the gates of Havana, and into the Province of Pinar del Rio, frequently crossing Spanish trochas or military walls when they were looked upon as impassable. He completely out-generalled Marshals de Campos and Weyler, winning victory after victory under the most disadvantageous condition and though at times a very sick man.

In June, 1902, Gomez was appointed Inspector General of the Rural Guard and commanded all the Cuban militia forces amounting in all to about five thousand men.

In November, 1903, the Cuban government presented Gomez with the sum of $50,000 in recognition of his services, and in celebration of his sixty-seventh birthday.

On June 12th last, the Cuban House of Representatives unanimously appropriated $100,000 for the benefit of General Gomez.

In May last General Gomez underwent at Santiago, Cuba, an operation as the result of the spread of gangrene in an abscess on his hand. He was removed to Havana.

There is some uncertainty as to the year and month of his birth, some reference books placing it at November 18th, 1836, and others at August 25, 1826.

GENERAL WAGNER, U. S. A., DEAD.

Passed Away at Asheville—Just Promoted to General.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Asheville, N. C., June 17.—Brigadier General Arthur L. Wagner, U. S. A., who came to this city from Washington, D. C., about six weeks ago in search of health, died suddenly this afternoon of consumption, contracted while in service in the Philippines. General Wagner had just been promoted from Colonel, his commission being signed only to-day.

At the General's bedside at the time of his death were his wife and one child. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and one son. The body will be shipped to Washington on Monday, where the burial will be held with military honors.

General Wagner was born in Illinois in 1853, and was a graduate of West Point Military Academy. During the Spanish-American war he saw service in Cuba and later in the Philippines, where he spent two and a half years. Since his return from the Philippines he had lived in Washington up to the time of his coming to this city. He married Miss Annie Howard, of Pittsburg.

HORRIBLE REVELATION.

Negro Tells About Murder of Carters in Georgia.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Vladosta, Ga., June 17.—A climax came to-day in the Rawlings-Carter tragedy with the arrest of Alf. Moore, at Lenox, Ga. He is one of the negroes alleged to be connected with the killing of the Carter children. He told a startling story. He declares that he was employed by Rawling to aid in the bloody work. He says that before leaving Valdosta, the day the children were killed, Rawlings carried his supper to him in the woods in order to keep him from going home. He also said that the programme was to kill the whole family and burn the house. He says that Milton Rawlings shot Carrie Carter and that Jesse Rawlings killed Willie Carter. The gun with which one of them was killed, was also found to-day. Excitement over the disclosure is high and heavy guards will remain at the jail to-night.

ON VERGE OF WAR ABOUT MOROCCO

SITUATION QUITE ALARMING

Diplomacy May Save Terrible European War—Germany Demands Open Door in Morrocco and Insists on It.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, June, 17.—The strained relations between France and Germany reached a culminating stage to-day and for a time the public mind was distracted between reports that the two countries were on the eve of a war that would set Europe ablaze and reassuring declarations that diplomacy still held a firm grasp upon the situation.

Fortunately the situation was much relieved to-night after a lengthy conference between Prince von Radolin, the German ambassador of France, and Premier Rouvier, which took place at the foreign office. This distinctly showed that diplomatic intercourse had not reached a point of rupture. Moreover, it is known that exchanges between Prince Von Radolin and the French Premier, which seemed on the point of breaking yesterday, were again brought within normal channels. At the same time a larmist reports had thoroughly aroused public apprehension that grave eventualities are possible if not imminent.

The government had not sought to check a full expression by the newspapers of their views and this permitted that section of the press opposed to the government to paint the situation in the darkest colors.

Notwithstanding public uneasiness over these reports, there is not the slightest evidence that France is profoundly moved or that the people seriously apprehend war. None of the exciting scenes that preceded the Franco-Prussian war is occurring; there is no public effervesence, no mob clamor and no threats of indignity to German officials or residents. Indeed the German embassy is one of the most serene spots in the French capital, and it has not been necessary to station even a plice guard there.

The conference between Prince von Randolin and Premier Rouvier appears to have been decisive in restoring a better state of feeling besides reopening pour parlors. There is good reason to believe that these were of a nature to give strong hope of an amicable adjustment. France at the outset was not disposed to accept an international conference upon Morocco, while Germany was insistent. The effect of this was to create a direct issue as to whether a conference should be held, but that issue does not longer appear to be insurmountable. France has shown a disposition to consider the question of a conference if Germany will give full assurance that this does not mean a sacrifice of any right which France has acquired or of obligations incurred by other international agreements concerning Morocco. In short, France wants to be assured that the conference profect is not designed to limit or discredit Franco-British, Franco-Spanish or Franco-Italian agreement so far as they affect Morocco. Once assured of these points it is likely that the chief objections to a conference are removed.

Inquiry to-night in the highest German quarters shows that it is Germany's purpose to give every reasonable assurance on these points. It was said also that Germany sincerely desired to avoid the appearance of placing France in an embarrassing or humiliating position, and it was added that this would be made known to Premier Rouvier in the strongest possible manner. Moreover, Germany is ready to remove if possible any appresension French Officials may entertain that she seeks territorial aggrandizement in Morocco or a port upon the Moroccan coast.

The chief point Germany would ask of a conference is a guarantee that Germany shall enjoy an open door to Morocco, and she does not wish to accept this guarantee through an Anglo-French entente.

United States Not Involved.

Washington, June 17.—Re-assuring advices reached Washington to-day from official sources regarding the Morocan negotiations at Paris, which while they indicated that war between Germany and France is improbable, indicate the extreme delicacy of the situation. Berlin takes a much more optimistic view of the situation than Paris. Germany claims that the negotiations are proceeding with the utmost good will on both sides, and the probability of an early settlement of all existing difficulties. Paris also professes good will and a spirit of extreme friendliness, but is unable to foresee the outcome, and is exceedingly anxious to find out "What is back of Morocco and what are Germany's real intentions?"

This is the light in which the situation has been presented at Washington. Both Germany and France who are refraining from any direct effort to draw in the United States, knowing informally that this government does not consider American interests in Morocco sufficient to warrant any initiative on the part of the President regarding the invitation of the sultan of the powers to participate in an international conference. American acceptance of that invitation will be on the condition that the powers signatory to the Madrid convention are in favor of such a conference.

Replying to an inquiry regarding Germany's Moroccan policy, Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German ambassardor to-day said:

"The report that the Emperor's policy in Morocco is aggressive is entirely erroneous. Germany's part in the complications over Morocco arises not from any attempt to seize territory, not from any effort to obtain privileges of any sort except such as are enjoyed by all of the signatories to the Madrid convention, but from her absolute refusal to recognize or participate in any arrangement involving the establishment of a sphere of influence in Morocco. Germany stands for the open door in Morocco as in China, for the maintenance of the status quo in both countries."

Germany Bostful.

Berlin, June 17.—The foreign office has, the Associated Press learns, telegraphed to Prince von Radolin, the German asbassador at Paris during the last day or two in a sense that will be re-assuring to French apprehensions if such were felt in the French cabinet. Germany still presses France diplomatically for her acceptance of the proposal to hold a conference of the powers on the subject of Morocco.

The undoubted disturbance of feeling in Paris over the German policy is not traceable to anything actually aggressive that the German government has done or is preparing to do. It is probably due to the feeling of weakness that has suddenly arisen in France since Admiral Rojestvensky lost the sea fight, and the corresponding relative increase in German confidence since it has become evident that Russia need not for the present be reckoned with. The thought in the government, in the army, and in the press is that Germany in a military sense has now become master of the continent and that being so, France and every other continental power should recognige that in diplomacy also Germany has risen to the first place and must be dealt with as the paramount power. So fully does the German ministers feel the strength of Germany's military and political position that the cautions, circumspect policy of recent years has been replaced by a more definite, positive tone toward Russia, toward France and toward Great Britain also. The spirit of confidence in the army runs immeasurably high. The young officers long for war. That is the constant talk in the regimental casinos. The foreign attachees here have recognized the change in the bearing of the German officer since Russia has been inextricably involved in the Far East, in that his conviction in the perfection of the German military machine is expressed with deeper and quiet assurance. The sentiments of the military body are not likely to influence the Emperor and Prince von Buelow, but they are extremely interesting and to these confident opinions expressed perhaps somewhat boastfully are probably due the rumors of German military designs.

Married In Club House.

Down at the Carolina Yacht Club on the beach last night appeared a swain and a blushing bride-elect, properly equipped with a license to wed but very earnest in an apparently vain search for some one to tie the nuptial knot. The novelty of the situation appealed to club members assembled for the evening and the bride and groom were invited right in with every assurance that a 'squire, if not a preacher, would certainly be found. Mr. Robert C. Cantwell at length consented to exercise his magisterial office to gratify the couple and there in the club house in the presence of Commodore J. VanB. Metts, the dignified presence of Aubrey Parsley and Capt. Wm. F. Robertson the nuptial knot was tied. The couple was Mr. Walter Sneeden and Miss Easter Sneden, both of Greenville Sound.

A CARD.

Mrs. Roger Moore and family desire to express the most heartfelt thanks to the friends who have shown so much thoughful kindness in these weeks of suspense and sorrow. The tender sympathy and active help, more spontaneous perhaps in this than in any other community, have done much to prevent any feeling of bitterness from encroaching upon the sense of loss. As it is impossible to thank each individual separately it is hoped that this public expression may reach every one who in any way sought to lighten the suffering and distress.
